

A decorative scene for an Easter market. In the center is a light-colored wooden rabbit figurine. To its right is a white ceramic pot containing several blue grape hyacinth flowers. In the foreground, there are two lit candles in glass jars; one is yellow and the other is white, both with the text "Osterfeuer to go :)" printed on them. There are also colorful Easter eggs (red, green, and white) and a yellow tulip. The background consists of a grey stone wall and a log covered in yellow lichen.
